Dwayne Johnson, also known as “The Rock,” is a famous American actor, producer, and former professional wrestler. He is known for his roles in movies like Jumanji, Fast & Furious, and Moana. Before acting, he was a successful wrestler in the WWE, and now he is also a motivational speaker and businessman.

In this video, The Rock talks with Oprah Winfrey about his life journey—from growing up with very little money to becoming one of the most successful people in Hollywood. He shares personal stories about his family, failures, success, and the importance of being yourself, working hard, and staying grateful. His message is inspiring and shows how staying true to yourself can lead to real happiness and strength.

Watch the video and answer the following essay questions. Write your answers in complete sentences and remember to check for spelling and grammar errors.
